

18 May 2011

ART ATRIUM ALERTS

JASON WING AND GARRY TRINH JOIN ART ATRIUM'S STABLE OF ARTISTS

Jason Wing, contemporary Aboriginal Chinese artist involved in a recent exhibition Living Liverpool at Casula Powerhouse Arts Centre, and Garry Trinh, winner of Sydney's premier photography prize Sydney Life in 2007, will also be represented by Art Atrium and will be having a joint exhibition in May 2012.

JOHN DEAN, 2011 SULMAN PRIZE FINALIST, CONFIRMS EXHIBITION FOR 2012

John Dean, Art Gallery of NSW Sulman Prize finalist 2011, has confirmed his solo exhibition at Art Atrium for July 2012.

NATHALIE HARTOG-GAUTIER ACCEPTS ARTIST IN RESIDENCE

Nathalie Hartog-Gautier, who recently joined the stable of artists represented by Art Atrium, will be Artist in Residence at Montsalvat, Victoria in November 2011. Hartog-Gautier will also be participating in a group exhibition 50th anniversary: Sydney Printmakers at Manly Art Gallery and Museum from 15 July to 28 August 2011.

ABORIGINAL BENEFITS FOUNDATION TO AID WARMUN ART CENTRE

Aboriginal Benefits Foundation recently approved a grant application from Warmun Art Centre to help replace equipment lost in recent floods which devastated the Warmun Community. The grant will enable artists to resume their art making and art centre programs.

Board member and Art Atrium gallery director, Simon Chan, has confirmed the Foundation is also planning new fundraising initiatives to support indigenous communities.