

24 January 2012

ART ATRIUM ALERTS

PEI PEI HE IS A FINALIST IN THE AGNSW DOBELL PRIZE FOR DRAWING

Congratulations to Pei Pei He, currently exhibiting in Art Atrium's exhibition, Breathe, on being a finalist in the Art Gallery of NSW Dobell Prize for Drawing 2011 with her drawing 'Rhythm of City Life'. The Dobell Prize for Drawing exhibition will be on at the Art Gallery of NSW until 5 February.

TIANLI ZU AWARDED 4A EMERGING ARTIST INITIATIVE

Art Atrium artist Tianli Zu, currently exhibiting in Art Atrium's exhibition, Breathe, was awarded the 4A Centre for Contemporary Asian Art Emerging Artist Initiative offering a personal consultation with Lisa Havilah, Director of Carriageworks, and Aaron Seeto, 4A's Director and an invitation to develop a project for 4A's 2012 Exhibition Program. She will also be performing a children's workshop 'Power Play' at the Powerhouse Museum from 6 to 11 March. Tian will also be showcasing a new animation work 'A Wonderful World' which will be screened at the 4A Cinema Alley in January..

JASON WING WILL EXHIBIT HIS STREET ART AT KIMBER LANE IN CHINATOWN

Art Atrium artist Jason Wing, who will be having a joint exhibition with Garry Trinh at Art Atrium in May, has been working with City of Sydney to enhance the laneways in the city and will be exhibiting his street art at Kimber Lane in Chinatown during the Sydney Festival and Chinese New Year Festival.

NEW DOCUMENTARY ON ZHOU XIAOPING LAUNCHES TUES 21 FEBRUARY

Ochre and Ink, a new documentary on Zhou Xiaoping, the artist, and produced and directed by James Bradley of Nirvana Films will be broadcast on ABC 1 Artscape at 10 pm on Tuesday 21 February. Further information about the film and DVD available for purchase can be found on the website <http://www.ochreandinkmovie.com>